

A DAY IN ANTHEM

Life is Abundant in Anthem

A day in Anthem is just around the corner with a bounty of restaurants, shopping, and events. Anthem is blessed with a picturesque setting tucked away in the Sonoran foothills of north Phoenix. Located at the base of Daisy Mountain, approximately five miles north of Carefree Highway off Interstate 17, Anthem is easily accessible and provides all the amenities, services and conveniences of a big city, yet offers the serenity and charm of a small town.

Start your day in Anthem with lunch in one of the town's many unique local restaurants. Dining in Anthem provides something for everyone and your appetite is sure to be satisfied. No matter your tastes or budget, Anthem offers a wealth of options from the upscale dining experience to the casual, family-friendly atmosphere. Anthem has a great list of places to grab a bite and a drink.

Spend the afternoon strolling through the shops or visiting the Outlets. Shopping in Anthem provides a unique collection of businesses, everything from one-of-a-kind boutiques to chain retailers. Shopping the Anthem way offers unlimited options.

If shopping is not your speed, Anthem welcomes families with a host of activities that will keep everyone entertained morning, noon and night. Enjoy Anthem's indoor and outdoor amenities — 40,000 square foot community center, 63-acre community park, four acre catch-and-release fishing lake, Adventure Playground, Daisy Mountain Railroad, 14,000 square foot skate park, 10 miles of hiking and biking trails, Big Splash Water Park and two championship eighteen-hole golf courses. For an authentic glimpse of life in the Old West, visit the Pioneer Village, just down the street from Anthem.

Ready for more? How about a glass of wine at the local wine bar, or a frozen yogurt treat as you consider a restaurant for dinner. Don't forget to check the online calendar, as Anthem offers many unique events throughout the year — Anthem Days, Anthem's premier event, an Independence Day Celebration that kicks the party off one to two days early, and Autumnfest, a Fall celebration, to name just a few. These are some reasons to come experience Anthem for a day or a lifetime.
